

TUESDAY : : : : : JANUARY 16.

Mr. S. H. PARSON, No. 65 Fourth Street, between Walnut and Vine, Cincinnati, is our authorized Agent to receive and receipt for advertising and subscription to the Kentucky Yeoman.

There is mischief brewing among the Americans in Baltimore. The new mayor, who was elected by the Know-Nothings, has appointed none but Americans to office, but some of them do not belong to the Know-Nothing, and the order has taken umbrage at it. A committee of the order visited the mayor to explain to him his duty of adherence to the party who had elected him, but the mayor says that he shall not be governed by any outside dictation, as he accepted the nomination with the express understanding that he was to be left perfectly free in his actions except so far as the platform which was adopted by the party before the election prescribes.

On the other side, the city council, a majority of whom are Know-Nothings, refuse to confirm the nominations made by the mayor, though all of them are native born. "The order" claims the right to say who shall be appointed, and the mayor and his friends resist the interference of "the third branch." Hence the quarrel now pending in Baltimore.

UNITED STATES STOCKS.—The Secretary of the Treasury has given notice, by advertisement, that the Department is prepared to purchase, between this time and the 1st of March next, certain portions of United States stocks, amounting, in the aggregate, to $1,300,000.

The young ladies of Rev. Mr. WARDLAW's school, of Paris, Ky., presented to him, on Christmas day, a very hand-some remembrance gift, consisting of a complete edition of the works of Dr. CUMMING, in seventeen volumes.

HEMP.—Many of our farmers have commenced breaking hemp. The lint is said to be heavy, and of superior quantity. The weather for the week has been favorable for roasting.—Mayscaw Edge.

The work of widening the track of the Maysville and Lexington railroad was begun yesterday at Covington, Ky., and the cars now run through Lexington on to Covington without any break of gang, or train-head of freight.

The Russian meeting at New Orleans, of which a dispatch spoke some days ago, was a jumble. Gen. GEORGE WASHINGTON DIXON was one of the preceding spirits.

The Daily Advertiser gives the details of a horrid case of the burning to death of a young woman, who in the absence of other members of the family, had become completely intoxicated, and, her clothes taking fire, she, from fear to her neck, was broaded to a car, being carried to her chair of fire by the iron power of the power of man.
